June 14-June 25, 2011 ~ Tampa, FL

Hosted by the University of South Florida School of Theater and Dance

Application for Work-Study / Staff Assistant Position

Application must be received by April 15, 2011 (not a postmark deadline)

Please fill this form out on your computer and mail it in with appropriate attachments.

All materials must arrive together in the same packet. Late and incomplete applications will not be considered.

The Florida Dance Festival offers several full and partial Work-Study/Staff Assistant positions to individuals 18 or older who have skills necessary to help with Festival operations. Staff Assistants must commit to a two-week period starting Sunday morning, June 12, 2011 to Sunday afternoon, June 26, 2011. Staff Assistants arrive before the Festival opens to help prepare registration materials, set up the Festival registration area, dance studios and other duties as needed. During the Festival, Assistants help students in selecting classes, monitor classes for overcrowding, assist teachers with audiovisual equipment, run the Festival's retail operations, man the "Will Call" ticket table before performances, usher performances, help with general upkeep of the studios and other duties as needed. Assistants are not released from duty until after 12:00 noon, Sunday, June 26, 2011. Staff Assistants must be able to work a consistent schedule during the Florida Dance Festival.

Work-Study/Staff Assistantships cover partial to full tuition (depending on work load and availability) and admission to all performances. Assistants may take as many classes as their work schedule allows. Assistants are responsible for their own transportation, housing and meal costs.
